

Early childhood practitioners as advocates and activists

Early Childhood Workforce Initiative – Webinars – 3 May, 2017

Felicity Norton,

Deputy of Pen Green Centre for Children and their Families and Research, Development and Training Base

Felicity is the Deputy of Pen Green Centre for Children and their Families and Research, Development and Training Base in Corby, Northamptonshire, England (www.pengreen.org), which is part of the Pen Green Integrated Early Years Centre for Children and Families committed to encouraging high standards of education, care and family support across establishments locally, nationally and internationally. Felicity's experience in early childhood includes research, inspection, advice, regulation, management, education and training. Amongst her responsibilities in Pen Green are mentoring members of staff and liaising with Heads of Children's Centres, nursery managers and leaders in the early years sector.