

Challenges and opportunities in integrating early years services: a spotlight on the workforce

Early Childhood Workforce Initiative – Webinars – 26 October, 2017

Giulia Cortellesi,

Senior Programme Manager, Early Years Team, International Child Development Initiatives (ICDI), Leiden, The Netherlands

Giulia has spent the last 15 years working internationally in the fields of education and development. She is currently working at International Child Development Initiatives (www.icdi.nl), Leiden, The Netherlands.

This involves managing research and development projects and providing training in countries such as Nicaragua, Palestine, Turkey, The Netherlands, Bangladesh and Italy. Her main topics of interest are: early childhood education and care (with a focus on the age group 0-3 and diversity and inclusion), migrant and refugee children, child participation and women's rights.

Giulia is also the overall coordinator of the European Commission supported programme 'TOY for Inclusion: Community Based Early Childhood Education and Care (ECEC) for Roma Children' (<http://www.toyproject.net/project/toy-for-inclusion-2/>), which promotes the creation of ECEC Play Hubs: non-segregated play spaces for all generations in seven European countries.